Attached please find the 4th Advisor for TS Isaac from the Lee County Emergency Operations Center. If you have any concerns, please don't hesitate to email Pam Brown at pbrown@leegov.com. Here is a fact sheet of information to assist should you have concerns.

- All Lee County Schools and district offices will be closed on Monday.
- It's anticipated that all Lee County government offices will also be closed. However, stay tuned to media for confirmation.
- Discussions continue regarding evacuation of the barrier island communities. Stay tuned to the media for further information.
- Bridge Tolls will be suspended on all county bridges beginning at 10 a.m. on Sunday - until approximately Monday afternoon.

Southwest Florida International Airport (RSW) Information

- Cape Air's last flight tonight will be at 5pm, they won't resume operations until Tuesday.
- Southwest tentatively planning on shutting down operations at 12:30 p.m. Sunday
- Air Tran tentatively planning on shutting down at 1:44 p.m. Sunday
- Spirit's last flight will be at 1:36 p.m. Sunday
- American Airlines to decide tonight at 7 p.m.
- Delta is planning on operating until Sunday night
- There is another LCPA Operations meeting scheduled for 10 a.m. Sunday

The National Weather Service has updated there information for our area as follows:

- Coastal areas expect to receive 5-8" of rain
- Storm Surge
  - Worst of it will happen in Lee and Charlotte counties.
  - During the storm there is a phenomenon called the Kelvin Wave that will create a 4 ft BELOW normal tide, then the water will come rushing back for tides that are estimated to be 5-7 ft ABOVE normal.
  - Storm surge will be worse than TS Debby.
  - On the mainland, from the River to Bonita Beach expect a possible 5-7 ft storm surge.
  - Sanibel, Captiva, Pine Island and the Cape can expect a possible 3-5 ft storm surge.
- Sunday mid afternoon we'll begin to see visible rainbands. 1 or 2 p.m.
- Weather will deteriorate even further as the afternoon progresses.
- Monday will be very rainy and windy.
- As the storm departs, that's when we'll see the worst of the storm surge.
- As it will whip it's "tail" around and push the water back onshore.

The Lee County Emergency Operations will have staff on duty for a shift this evening 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. Full activation will begin tomorrow (Sunday) morning at 7 a.m.

Please share the following information with the Visitor & Convention Bureau. You can contact Phase V with your current room availability AND if you have a functioning generator to power the property in case of power outage.

Phase V - phone: 239-225-1019
Phase V email: leepropertyupdates@phasev.com

Please supply the following information to Phase V

- Total number of sleeping rooms on your property:
- Are pets allowed?
- Are you ADA Compliant?
- Do you have disabled accessible units?
- Approximate # of rooms available for:
  - Saturday, 8/25
  - Sunday, 8/26
  - Monday, 8/27
  - Tuesday, 8/28